

CSET Test Prep Workshop

The North Coast Beginning Teacher Program is offering a test prep class to support teachers' success with the CSET! The CSET Test Prep Workshop includes an overview of testing strategies, test format and timing, study strategies and will familiarize participants with the CSET website, as well as introduction to taking the exam on a computer. This class also provides an opportunity to meet other teachers in similar content areas who might be interested in developing study partnerships. Beginning July 14, 2012, the CSET will be offered on computer only.

The federal law referred to as No Child Left Behind (NCLB), will require some teachers to meet subject matter competency by taking the California Subject Examinations for Teachers (CSET). The following are examples of teachers who may need to take the CSET:

- Teachers who obtained a Multiple Subject Credential dated on or after July 1, 2002
- New Single Subject teachers teaching on Supplementary credentials
- Teachers wishing to add a subject authorization to their credentials
- University students wishing to enter a Teaching Credential Program
- Potential teachers or current substitute teachers wishing to pursue a teaching career
